

Presentation Request Form

The New Brunswick Human Rights Commission offers a variety of information sessions and educational workshops related to human rights. These sessions are offered at no cost to anyone who requests them, including employers, service providers, government departments, and educational institutions. Our presentations help organizations integrate human rights principles and best practices in their day-to-day operations.

To request a human rights presentation and help us tailor a session to meet your needs, please complete this form and email it to hrc.cdp@gnb.ca. A staff member will contact you to schedule a session with your organization.
