

HUMAN RIGHTS RESOURCES FOR K-12 EDUCATION

Scan the QR codes or enter <http://www.gnb.ca/hrc-cdp> into your preferred browser to access these resources on the New Brunswick Human Rights Commission's website.

GUIDELINE ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH A DISABILITY (K-12)

The Commission publishes guidelines to educate the public on key human rights topics. This guideline explains the legal duty of education providers to accommodate students with disability, the principles of accommodation, and the rights and responsibilities of parents and students in the accommodation process.

<https://bit.ly/3Vb778G>

"HUMAN RIGHTS IN NEW BRUNSWICK" HANDOUT

This plain language flyer outlines the key human rights protections in New Brunswick. It covers the grounds of discrimination, the legal duty to accommodate, examples of discrimination and harassment, the compliance process, and the Commission's role in the province. It is also available in Arabic, Tagalog, Mandarin, Swahili, Spanish, and Ukrainian.

<https://bit.ly/3EvZfsH>

PRESENTATION REQUEST FORM

The Commission offers free human rights presentations to students, educators, school administrators, etc. We can tailor our workshops to the specific needs of an organization or audience. Some topics include: "Getting Acquainted with Human Rights", "Human Rights and Gender Expression", "the Duty to Accommodate", amongst others. Organizations can request a presentation via the Commission's Presentation Request Form.

<https://bit.ly/3CA6dem>

SAFER PLACES N.B.

Safer Places N.B. is the Commission's collaborative project with PLEIS N.B. to develop tools and resources to prevent and address workplace sexual harassment. The platform offers asynchronous workplace sexual harassment training, a LGBTQIA2S+ glossary, gender identity FAQs, free lawyer referral options, and more. Safer Places N.B. is a great resource for working students and/or those participating in co-op classes.

<https://bit.ly/3zwtH0>

More resources, including an introduction to the grounds and areas of discrimination, human rights guidelines on various topics, and interactive resources on human rights history in New Brunswick, are also available on the Commission's website.

HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS AND EDUCATION IN NEW BRUNSWICK? CONTACT THE COMMISSION:

 (506) 453-2301

 hrc.cdp@gnb.ca

 Barry House, P. O. Box 6000
Fredericton, NB E3B 5H1