

FORM 11 - Order for Examination
(Mental Health Act, R.S.N.B. 1973, c.M-10, s.9(1))

To any peace officer in the Province of New Brunswick OR

To _____, in the County of _____,
nearest relative of the individual to be examined.

Whereas information upon oath (or solemn affirmation) has this day been brought before the undersigned, a judge of the Provincial Court sitting in _____ (Location)

by _____ of _____ (Name of Informant) (Address of Informant)

that the informant believes that _____ (Name or Description of Individual)

of _____ (Address of Individual)

is suffering from a serious mental illness and should be examined in the interest of the person's own safety or the safety of others,

And whereas I am satisfied that such examination is necessary and the person refuses to submit to a medical examination,

And whereas I have made due inquiry into all of the facts to form a satisfactory opinion, I hereby order you, the said
peace officers, or any of you, (or the nearest relative) to take into custody the said

_____
(Name or Description of Individual to be Examined)

and take that person to a medical facility, physician's office or psychiatric facility where the person may be detained for medical examination.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20 ____ .

(Judge of the Provincial Court)

NOTE: This order is authority for any individual to whom it is directed to take into custody the individual named or described in the order and to take that individual to a medical facility, physician's office or psychiatric facility where the individual named or described may be detained for medical examination.
